	vol.-No.	Title	Summary
LEVEL 4	6-1	The Great Gate of Rasho / The Railway Truck	About one thousand years ago, Kyoto suffered many disasters. A young man who lost everything was at the ruined Great Gate of Rasho. What did he see there ...? One of two stories by Akutagawa Ryunosuke, an early-20th-century author.
	6-2	The Red-Headed League	"A simple and easy but high-paying job, only for red-headed males!" — What is hidden in the job offer? Sherlock Holmes solves the mystery brilliantly. A masterpiece by Conan Doyle, a 19th-century English author.
LEVEL 5	6-3	Sakamoto Ryoma — A Young man who changed the course of Japan	Towards the end of Edo period, in Shikoku, an island far from Edo, Sakamoto Ryoma was born to a family of lower samurai rank. He tried single-handedly to reshape Japan. What would become of Ryoma and Japan?
	6-4	Noguchi Hideyo — A Doctor born in Japan but devoted to people all around the world	Poor, disabled in one hand, and with no university degree, Hideyo became a world-class doctor through his selfdetermination. This book is about the life of the man whose portrait is now on the one-thousand-yen bank notes of Japan.
